

PILOT CREDIT 1: TRUE ADVISOR

1 point

TRUE pilot credits are a group of credits not in the current version of the rating system which are designed to test new innovative zero waste strategies and/ or facilitate introduction of new credits to TRUE. Pilot credits can be used in lieu of any existing TRUE credit (worth same points as the pilot credit) in the rating system. These credits are awarded based on project teams attempting and achieving the credit requirements. The credits may change as feedback is received.

INTENT

To gain the understanding of zero waste that is required by a TRUE project and to facilitate the application preparation process for certification.

REQUIREMENTS

At least one principal participant on the TRUE project team must have earned the TRUE Advisor credential.

SUBMITTAL DOCUMENTATION

- Provide a narrative identifying the TRUE Advisor and describing their role in the TRUE project.
- Submit a copy of the TRUE Advisor certificate of one of the principal participants
